The strategies will (mark all that apply)

- Provide opportunities for all children, including subgroups of students, to meet the challenging Missouri Learning Standards.

Description of how strategy/strategies will provide

All students are provided with the strategies to meet the challenging Missouri Learning Standards through a school-wide RTI program focused on needs using classroom data to guide instruction. All students have access to additional services in the Title I programs in reading. Some students are served in a pull-out model and some in a push-in model.

- Use methods and instructional strategies that strengthen the academic program in the school.

Description of how strategy/strategies will strengthen

1. Students are instructed in small reading groups based on their independent reading level. This is considered Tier 2 and 3 instruction and groups are no more than 3:1 student/teacher ratio.
2. Whole group instruction with peer modeling
3. Guided reading groups
4. Small reading groups based on skill needs

- Increase the amount of learning time

- Extended school year
- Before-and/or after-school programs
- Summer program
- Other

- Help provide an enriched and accelerated curriculum

Description of how strategy will provide

Students who need enrichment or accelerated curriculum can have their needs met during RTI in a group that has accelerated past the current grade placement. They also have their needs met in their individualized reading groups within the classroom.

Activities that address the needs of those at risk of not meeting the Missouri Learning Standards will include (mark all that apply)

- Address the needs of all children in the school, but particularly the needs of those at risk of not meeting the Missouri Learning Standards

Description of how strategy/strategies will address

Students, particularly those at risk of not meeting the Missouri Learning Standards, are taught with research based strategies. In reading, those strategies are in line with the Missouri Reading Initiative which provides onsite teacher training in strategies to teach and assess reading and writing. Those strategies include guided reading groups, teacher modeling, peer modeling, word work, and ongoing progress monitoring.

Activities will (mark all that apply)

- Improving students' skills outside the academic subject areas
  - Counseling
  - School-based mental health programs
  - Specialized instructional support services
  - Mentoring services
  - Other

Helping students prepare for and become aware of opportunities for postsecondary education and the workforce

- Career/technical education programs
- Access to coursework to earn postsecondary credit
  - Advanced Placement
  - International Baccalaureate
  - Dual or concurrent enrollment
  - Early college high schools
  - Other

Our counseling department conducts lessons on planning for postsecondary education and workforce using the Missouri Connections program for our 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students. We also have a STEM program for our 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students. Fairview is a K-8 district so we do not provide coursework for postsecondary credit or offer career/technical education programs.

Implementing a schoolwide tiered model to prevent and address problem behavior, and early intervening services

Providing professional development and other activities for teachers, paraprofessionals, and other school personnel to improve instruction and use of data

- Delivery of professional development services
- Instructional coach
- Teaching methods coach
- Third party contract
- Other

Professional development activities that address the prioritized needs

Describe activities

Recruiting and retaining effective teachers, particularly in high need subjects

Describe activities

1. Attend job fairs hosted by local college.
2. Continue to implement teacher induction program with mentor and plan.
3. Regularly communicate with new teachers to ensure support and address needs/concerns.

Assisting preschool children in the transition from early childhood education programs to local elementary school program

Describe activities

In order to assist preschool students in the transition from early childhood to elementary programs, Fairview should continue offering summer school to incoming kindergarteners. These students become aware of school procedures related to lunch, special classes, and location of building features. In addition, Fairview will continue to identify and serve preschool age students who qualify for special education services.
